Description	Constitution Day, also known as Samvidhan Divas or National Law Day, is celebrated in India on November 26 every year. On November 26, 1949, the Constituent Assembly of India formally adopted the Constitution of India. It came into force on January 26, 1950. Principal sir said that Constitution Day aims to bring awareness about the importance of the Constitution and Dr. B. R. Ambedkar. The Constitution is a set of written principles and precedents of the Government of India. It frames fundamental political principles, procedures, rights, directive principles, restrictions and duties of the government and the citizens of the country. All program was successful under the guidance & support from our Principal sir, staff & NSS volunteer students.
