Event Details

Event Title	Savitribai Phule Birth Anniversary
Organized By	Ashokrao Mane College of Pharmacy, Peth Vadgaon
Date of Organization	Saturday, 03/01/2026
Description	On Saturday, January 3, 2026, Ashokrao Mane College of Pharmacy, Peth Vadgaon, celebrated the birth anniversary of Savitribai Phule, revered as India's first female teacher and a pioneering social reformer. The program was organized to honor her remarkable contributions to women's education, social equality, and the upliftment of marginalized sections of society. The event commenced with a Photo Pujan and Deep Prajwalana, which was solemnly performed by Principal Dr. A. P. Gadad, paying respectful tribute to Savitribai Phule. Floral offerings were made, and the gathering observed the occasion with reverence and gratitude for her enduring legacy. In his address, Dr. A. P. Gadad highlighted Savitribai Phule's fearless efforts in promoting education for girls, her struggle against social evils such as caste discrimination and gender inequality, and her invaluable role in shaping modern Indian society. He emphasized the relevance of her ideals in today's era and encouraged students to imbibe the values of education, equality, and social responsibility in their personal and professional lives. Faculty members shared brief reflections on Savitribai Phule's life, focusing on her role as an educator, poet, and social reformer, and her contribution to establishing the first school for girls in India along with Mahatma Jyotirao Phule. The speakers stressed the importance of continuing her mission through awareness, education, and community service. The program witnessed active participation from faculty members, non-teaching staff, and National Service Scheme (NSS) volunteers
